

E-statements Frequently Asked Questions

What is an E-statement?

It is an electronic version of a Checking or Savings account regular statement. E-statements look like paper statements, but information can be sorted by date, amount, or check numbers. You can view both sides of an individual check or the detailed images of deposit items. There is also a handy electronic balancing sheet to help you reconcile your accounts.

Is there a cost associated with E-statements?

E-statements, as well as online banking are provided FREE of CHARGE.

What accounts are available through E-statements?

Generally speaking, if you received a paper statement for it before, it will be available through E-statements. Some loan accounts may be an exception.

Do I have to be enrolled in online banking?

Yes, enrolling in online banking is quick and easy. Check our demo online or talk to a friendly customer service representatives for assistance.

How are E-statements different from viewing activity online?

An E-statement looks like a statement, and it contains internal links to view individual checks and deposit items in detail. You can sort the information for easy viewing or balancing and decide for yourself how big or how small to make the items.

How do I sign up to receive E-statements?

Once you are enrolled in online banking, simply log into your account and click on "View Statements". You will be asked to review and accept the terms and conditions. On your next statement date, you will be able to view, save, or print your statements from home.

Will I still receive paper statements in the mail?

Once you sign up for E-statements, you can print them anytime at your convenience if you need a paper statement. You will not have to wait for the mail to come, as a paper statement will no longer be generated for you by the bank, starting with the cycle following enrollment.

How will I know when my E-statement is available?

We will send you an E-mail message "Your online statement is now available!" This will be sent to the E-mail address we have listed in your online banking. To verify your E-mail address, simply log in to Online Banking and click on "My Profile". You may also set up an alert in on-line banking to notify you when you log in.
